

EBERT GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY OVERTHROWN BY MILITARY COUP D'ETAT

DR. KAPP ASSUMES SUPREME DIRECTOR OF NATION'S AFFAIRS

Old Government Officials Headed By President Ebert Now at Dresden—New Regime Declared To Be Neither Reactionary Nor Monarchistic—Masses of Troops Dominant at the Situation in Berlin.

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, March 13.—The government of Friedrich Ebert, the Socialist president of the German Republic, was overthrown today by a military coup d'etat. Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, one of the founders of the fatherland and general director of the agricultural societies, has ousted Gustav Bauer, the chancellor and in taking that office himself, has temporarily assumed supreme direction of affairs.

There are now two contending governments in Germany: the new one under Chancellor Kapp, at Berlin; the old one under President Ebert at Dresden. Officials of the new government declare that it is not reactionary or monarchistic. The president of the old government and his ministers have issued a proclamation, calling upon the people to rise in a general strike as the only means of preventing the return of Wilhelm II.

Berlin is occupied by the troops of the counter revolution—to what number is not known—and the movement is spreading rapidly through the provinces.

Masses of troops and naval brigades with artillery have been brought into the capital and dominate the situation. Thus far there has been no outbreak and no bloodshed.

Admiral von Trotha had been dispatched to Danzig for the purpose of conferring with the troops and amending them to desert from any violent procedure. He returned and informed the cabinet that the agitation had subsided but that the danger was not wholly removed.

The realization was finally brought home to the cabinet that the army under Herr Noske was far from a loyal organization and that the Berlin garrisons had also been inculcated by the officers of the old school and were ready for the rising when the call came. The secrecy with which the revolution was planned and carried out has stunned everyone.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg is reported to be favored by the new regime as imperial president but thus far he has remained in the background. The former minister of foreign affairs, Gottlieb von Jagow, General Baron von Falkenhayn, former governor general of Belgium, are among the leaders of the counter revolution.

While the movement has been carried out rapidly and in apparent order there is an undercurrent of anxiety among the people of Berlin as to possible future occurrences. Counter measures are expected soon although the Kapp government has taken precautions to place those members of the former government who could be reached under arrest.

Washington Official Comment.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—(By The Associated Press).—News of the revolution in Germany sustained the conviction of some officials and diplomats here that a test of strength between the Socialists and the military and conservative elements was inevitable. They said the military and conservative parties had seized upon every demand of the entente for the enforcement of the armistice and peace terms to rouse the pride of the German people into resistance and had not found it difficult to fasten responsibility for the acceptance of these terms on the Ebert government.

Signs of a marked change in the feelings and attitude of the German people have not been wanting and the recent attacks by mobs in German cities upon members of the allied commissions and the tenor of recent French notes regarding the fulfillment of peace terms have provoked intense diplomats here for some such development as came today.

Knowing the deep seated aversion of the German people to a renewal of war it is felt that should they win complete control they will take no steps justifying a forcible military occupation of the country by the entente armies.

"Germany is flat on its back," said one diplomatic representative today referring to the military resources of the country. He said that while still strong in manpower, the Germans lacked the raw material, food supplies, ships, aircraft and railway cars and other material necessary for extensive military operations.

Suggestions that the revolutionists might seek a union with the Russian Bolsheviks are discounted here.

Officials said however, that the revolution might indirectly play into the hands of Lenin by giving a new and powerful impetus to the Spartacist movement. The rise of any reactionary regime against the government of Socialist Democrats, it was said, naturally was calculated to provoke the communists and radical Socialists to extreme action.

With the revolutionists in control in Berlin and the Ebert government set up in Dresden some observers here regard civil strife as practically certain. Military officials said that the outcome very probably would depend upon the loyalty of the Ebert government's troops, that it was admitted that if a general strike took place the Socialist government would be given a very powerful weapon.

The first official message to reach Washington was from the American legation at The Hague and was somewhat garbled. A second from Paris came later.

The state department issued the following statement regarding the revolution. The department issued the following statement regarding these advances. The department of state has received no direct advice from Berlin regarding the revolution but it has received indirect information from Paris and from The Hague that messages being dated March 13.

The first dispatch was a very brief one from The Hague, garbled in transmission, which merely stated that "reports reaching here this morning (omission) are an occupation of Berlin. Reichstag dissolved and government fled."

The despatch from Paris said that according to press sources, Noske, the German minister of war under the Ebert regime had issued a proclamation that information had reached him warning of a monarchist plot to seize the naval forces and overturn the government. Representatives of two marine brigades quartered at Doberitz, in the suburbs of Berlin, entered Berlin and there was a parley with the cabinet at midnight. The parley resulted in no agreement and the marine brigades came into Berlin early this morning, seized the Reichstag station by 4:30 A. M., and took control of the Wilhelm Strasse and government buildings two hours later.

Two proclamations were issued by director general von Kapp, described as a prominent monarchist from Koenigsberg. These proclamations stated the government no longer exists announced his assumption as chancellor in control and of his designation of von Luettwitz as commander-in-chief of the army; and the dissolution of the assembly, elections to be called when the interior situation warrants.

Information at Paris which is based on these press despatches from Berlin is that a general strike has been declared by the Socialist parties in Berlin at the instance of Noske.

No Bloodshed.
BERLIN, March 13.—Germany today is in the throes of a counter revolution which, it is believed, has been successful. This forenoon the Ebert government fled from Berlin and setting up a new administration in the capital.

President Ebert and his cabinet, offering no armed resistance have gone to Dresden and established the seat of their government in that city.

The new government, which has been provisionally proclaimed here with Dr. Wolfgang Kapp as chancellor, has declared the na-

U. S. MAY TAKE OVER ALL PRE WAR GERMAN SHIPPING

Payne Places Proposed Plan Before Senate Committee

SIXTY ROUTES ARE INCLUDED

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(By The Associated Press).—A plan under which American steamship companies would take over and operate with American flag the sixty pre-war world trade routes of the Hamburg-American Line is being worked out by the shipping board subject, it is understood, to the approval of the German government.

The proposal was approved today by the senate commerce committee 10 to 4 after Chairman Payne had explained it in executive session.

In subsequent statements both Chairman Jones and Mr. Payne said the board would not be a party to the proposed arrangement with the Hamburg-American line, that its part merely would be to furnish ships, either thru sale or lease and to lend its co-operation in obtaining this business for American shipping interests.

Whether the plan originated with the German company or with the board was not made clear. It was said, however, that any arrangement made would be a cooperative one; that the Hamburg-American line had the port facilities for handling its pre-war business, but was without ships. The routes which the American companies will take over include those not only between Germany and the United States but also to South America, the Orient and other parts of the world. Shipping board officials said the business probably would be too great for any one American company to handle and that the several companies probably would operate the immense fleet necessary to take care of the enormous volume of business which the German company had before the war.

Chairman Payne today made public the following memorandum which was submitted to the senate commerce committee.

"The board has carefully considered the different matters involved in a proposition to make a working arrangement with the Hamburg-American line, involving the shipping board's taking over the sixty services formerly served by that line.

"1. That no direct arrangement be made by the board with the Hamburg line.

"2. That it is very desirable that an American company or group of companies make an arrangement by which this business may be secured.

"3. The board is prepared to co-operate with an American company or companies in the sale of chartering of ships to enable such American companies to secure this outlet, the terms of any contract which may be made with the Hamburg-American line being subject to the approval of the board.

While shipping board officials would not concede that there had been any negotiations with the Hamburg-American line it was understood that the company was disposed to enter into a cooperative contract with American steamship lines.

WOULD WIPE OUT ALL WAR DEBTS
London, March 13.—Baron Fisher, former first lord in a letter to the London Times advocates the wiping out of international war debts. He writes: "When each country demands of another repayment in cash for what was spent in the common cause, it has the aspect of the price of blood and looks as if we are setting a valuation on those millions of young souls who sacrificed their lives for freedom and not for cash.

"Cannot all these international debts be wiped out? England will lose most. Let her lead."

400,000 ON STRIKE IN FRANCE
Paris, March 13.—Nearly 400,000 persons are on strike in France according to estimates made today by officials of the Federation of Labor.

The Paris region seems free from strikes than most parts of France, but strikes among the shoe makers, upholsterers and mail workers are threatened.

MARTIAL LAW IN TESCHEN
Vienna, March 12.—(By The Associated Press).—Martial law was declared yesterday in the Teschen plebiscite district by the allied representatives because of conflicts between the Poles and Czechs. Polish troops are reported to have occupied Karwin Wednesday night and created a reign of terror in the towns until midnight.

BANK CLEARINGS
New York, March 13.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they held $29,940,420 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $26,341,360 from last week.

GOV. EDWARDS' NAME WILL NOT APPEAR ON ILLINOIS BALLOT

Taken Off at Request of New Jersey Governor—No Reason is Given

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 13.—In response to a request from Governor I. Edwards of New Jersey that his name be left off the Democratic ballot at the presidential primaries in Illinois Tuesday, April 13 the Secretary of State today sent the New Jersey governor a message that his request would be granted.

Following receipt of a telegram from Governor Edwards this morning the secretary of state's office obtained an informal opinion from the attorney general's office that the name of the New Jersey candidate could not be withdrawn. A telegram was sent to Governor Edwards to this effect. Later officials of the Attorney General's office, consulted by telephone with Attorney General Brundage in Chicago and a new opinion was prepared holding that Governor Edwards should be allowed to withdraw.

Following the preparation of the new opinion another telegram was sent to the New Jersey executive telling him of the attorney general's decision and informing him that his name would not be presented to the voters at the April primary.

Attorney General Brundage is said to take the position that the primary was held on the basis of the withdrawal of candidates from the preferential primary and that it is therefore permissible to receive a withdrawal. The law fixes a time for the candidates for delegates to the national convention. The time for their withdrawal expired at midnight, March 9.

NEWBERRY CASE WILL GO TO JURY THE COMING WEEK

Four of the Six Counts Are Ruled Out By Judge Sessions

EXAMINATION OF KING IS WAIVED

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 13.—Only two of the original six counts on which Senator Truman H. Newberry and 84 other leading Republicans of Michigan are being tried will be submitted to the jury late next week. At the close of testimony in United States district court today Judge Clarence W. Sessions first combined counts one and four, then held that counts two and three were repetitious and ruled them out. The fifth count was ruled out at the close of the government's direct case.

Two issues still remain for the jury to decide:

"Was there a criminal conspiracy to violate the state and federal election laws in procuring the nomination and election of Newberry?"

Judge Sessions said he was convinced that throwing of the counts would follow the language of the federal corrupt practices law which cites as illegal certain acts in connection with a nomination and election.

"The use of the word 'and' in the statute was the determining factor in this decision.

The original counts of the indictment differentiating between acts in the primary and general election campaigns.

The court also pointed that with four counts of practically identical import, it might be possible, in case of a conviction, to impose penalties that would aggregate more than the punishment contemplated by the statute. He said he would be inclined to do this.

Formal entries were also made in the court record to show that all previous motions for dismissal of the charges had been renewed and overruled. It was ordered that these entries show the same grounds for the motions and the same denial by the court as were recorded at the close of the government's direct case. The court rulings followed a brief rebuttal by the government which lasted less than an hour. This in turn came on the heels of a formal announcement by Frank C. Dalley, assistant attorney general, that the prosecution had decided to waive cross-examination of Paul King, Newberry campaign manager, who was twice stricken with nervous breakdowns while testifying for the defense.

Mr. Dalley explained that he took this action to avoid further delay.

The trial was thus brought to the stage where only arguments by attorneys and instructions by the court the same to be heard.

The schedule gives four days to this final phase of the case, which probably will be placed in the jury's hands next Friday morning.

MORE REVENUE IS NEEDED BY AMERICAN RAILWAY EXPRESS CO.

Petition Interstate Commerce Commission to Raise Rates 10 to 75 Per Cent

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Increased express charges, ranging from 10 to 75 per cent and estimated to yield $25,000,000 additional revenue annually were asked by the American Railway Express company in a petition filed today with the interstate commerce commission.

Increased cost of conducting its business as well as the urgent need for more complete facilities and equipment was given by the companies as grounds for asking additional revenue. Expenditures of many millions of dollars was necessary the petition said and additional funds could not be obtained under the present rates.

The company estimated its deficit for 1919 at $22,036,000, and for the last six months of 1918 at $15,723,000.

While explaining that previous increases added approximately $11,000,000 to the annual revenue the company said this money was given immediately to employees in the shape of increased wages. Granting of extra wages for overtime on the basis of an eight hour day was said to have resulted in a monthly outlay of $1,022,000 as compared to less than $50,000 before the eight hour day and overtime pay were given.

The company asked for a flat 25 per cent increase on the present commodity rates in the district east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio Rivers. Between two points in that district and other sections of the country the increase would be 10 per cent.

SENATE WILL TAKE FINAL ACTION ON ARTICLE X MONDAY

Treaty Foves Have Full Sway at Saturday's Session

LIMIT DEBATE TO 15 MINUTES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 13.—With the irreconcilable foes of the peace treaty again in the saddle and with compromise apparently further away than ever, the senate agreed by unanimous consent today to bring swiftly to a conclusion its fight over the decisive question of Article X. Under the agreement a final vote on all proposed reservations to article ten will be taken Monday and speeches during the day's session will be held within a fifteen minute limitation.

Tonight's vote of ratification was not entirely dead among some of those who worked for compromise, tho they concede that only a last minute reversal of form could save the treaty from another deadlock which would throw it into the political limbo. The leaders thought the ratification vote probably would come by the middle of the week.

The irreconcilables, who alone have kept their forces intact, gained control of the situation when they induced Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, to accept a reservation proposed in his substitute reservation to Article X. The move ended the bitter attack of the irreconcilables on the substitute and thus reunited the Republican membership, but it also drove away Democratic support of the compromise and befuddled the efforts of Democratic compromise advocates to make definite pledges of any aid at all from that side of the chamber.

Shortly afterward the administration and irreconcilable leaders announced that all danger of ratification was past. Reconciling they had the votes to beat it and some to spare and could hold them securely under an absolute ledge.

The amendment of Senator Lodge, which is understood to have been drafted by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, the irreconcilable leader, inserted the words "including all controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence" in the provision detailing the international controversies in which this nation would not interfere.

Senator Lodge, in the opinion of the committee, merely saying it had been suggested to him by some of his associates.

Apparently the principal cause of suspicion and defection in the Democratic compromise group, however, was the course of Senator Lodge in again changing the provisions of a reservation for which they were trying to obtain support. It was recalled that certain words had been shifted just before the substitute was introduced yesterday and while the negotiations on the Democratic side were at their height. If constant alterations were to make the Democrats declared they could promise nothing.

SEVEN ARMISTICE DAY RIOTERS FOUND GUILTY, THREE ARE ACQUITTED

Were Charged With Murder of Warren O. Grimm, at Centralia Parade Nov. 11

(By The Associated Press)
MONTELEONE, Wash., March 13.—Seven of the ten industrial workers charged with the murder of Warren O. Grimm, one of four former soldiers shot during an armistice day parade at Centralia, Washington, were found guilty tonight of second degree murder. Three others were found not guilty. Loren Roberts, one of the trio, was acquitted on the ground of insanity.

The defendants found guilty of second degree murder were Britt Smith, Ray Becker, James McKernery, Bert Bland, Eugene Barnett, John Lamb and O. C. Bland.

The three acquitted were: Mike Sheehan, Elmer Smith, and Loren Roberts, the latter on the ground of insanity.

After the reading of the verdict and the return of the defendants to the county jail, John Berry, sheriff of Lewis county in which Centralia is located, read to them warrants charging them with the murder of Arthur McElresh, another of the four slain at Centralia.

DOCTOR SAVES BANK FROM ROBBERY

Chillitheo, Ill., March 13.—When Dr. F. A. Smith, attending a call here shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, passed the Truitt and Matthews bank he was met by three men and told to "get out of here."

Suspecting that an attempt was being made to rob the bank, he hastened to a telephone and sought to call bank officials. The telephone operator sounded the fire siren and brought out the fire engine. In the meantime the robbers had blown the bank safe, but at the sound of the siren they fled without securing any of the bank's money.

WILL GRANT CORNELL SOLDIERS FULL PRIVILEGES

Ithaca, N. Y., March 13.—Cornell University will confer the degree of war alumnus on each undergraduate who left the university when in good standing to enter the military service of the United States during the world war. The faculty has decided to make each student who left for war service a member of the class in which he would have graduated and to grant him full alumni privileges.

107 ENTRIES FOR KENTUCKY DERBY

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—One hundred and seven nominations, the largest number in history, have been made for the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs May 8. Likewise the stake is the largest since it was instituted in 1875. It will carry $30,000 in added money, requires a nominating fee of $25 and will cost $250 to start. Value to the winner will be $30,000. The total of the stake is figured at approximately $36,000. The richest 1920 purse on the American turf.

The list of thoroughbreds, announced tonight by the Kentucky Jockey Club embraces colts, geldings and fillies, entered by widely known turfmen.

SHOULD BE ONE
STATE RULING

The election board in Cook county has announced that it will ignore the opinion of Attorney General Brundage and will prepare ballots permitting the women of that county to vote at the preferential primary in April.
Certainly there should be some means found for having election officers thruout the state adopt and enforce the same ruling.
There will be a lot of unhappy and disappointed people on election day if women are allowed to vote in one part of the state and restrained from so doing in another.

OF COURSE THE SOUTH PROSPERS

Census figures now being issued show increases of population in many southern cities. This is not at all surprising in view of the preference that the south has had under the present administration not only in the enactment of laws but in department rulings.
Some comparative figures on the wealth of the south would be even more interesting than those on population. With the fixing of a 17c sugar price and an unprecedented figure for the cotton crop, why shouldn't these southern states have made rapid progress

facilities must be added. This is an important matter for business men, for the more convenient it is made for visitors to Jacksonville, the greater will be the influx of them.

ONE HAPPY THOUGHT

There is only one happy thought for the public in connection with the dispute over coal mining conditions and wages,
which is again becoming the center of interest as the end of the present month approaches. It is entirely possible that the mining of soft coal will cease at that time until a new wage agreement is negotiated. The one happy thought is that warmer days are at hand and so there need be no actual suffering and a minimum amount of inconvenience.
The consumers will sanguinely expect that after operators and miners have wrangled around long enough to cut production to such a degree that the demand will be very active thru a succeeding twelve months, that a contract will be made.
Of course prices will be lower.
They always are after increases are granted following a period of non-operation and losses to both operators and miners.

IN DARKEST JACKSONVILLE

People have the habit of thinking that problems of child welfare are confined largely to the slums of the cities. As a matter of fact every town and city has such problems and they exist even in the countryside. The average citizen of Jacksonville as he sits in his church pew today or lounges about his home reading the Sunday papers, has no understanding of the conditions that exist in some of the homes of this city—conditions that lead surely to the moral, physical and spiritual degradation of children.
This statement is made advised-
ly and the proof is near at hand.
Within a few blocks of the public square in this Athens of the West—in this city which has surroundings incomparably better than are found in most cities—children are being reared in filthy atmosphere that is never cleared from one week's end to another.
There are in these homes children of tender years—mere babies
—and others of larger growth,
who today are only half clothed and half nourished. Some of them are neglected by their parents and others dwell in these forbidding conditions because either the father or the mother is dead and the one that is left does not know how or is unwilling to provide the right surroundings.
Visit these homes and you will find conditions that will shock you and bring tears to your eyes. Bare floors, broken furniture, bed and personal clothing proving the filthy living habits. Yet in such surroundings little children are growing to manhood and womanhood.
They are children who are to become future citizens and are expected to take their place in the community. If these conditions are not remedied—if some well directed helping hand is not extended—they certainly will take their places—in the homes of correction, the almshouses, the insane asylums and the prisons that the state maintains.
Just from an economy standpoint it would be cheaper for this community to take some steps to rescue these children, to place them in the right environment rather than to wait until they become wards of the state in later years. But the question of money leads to insignificance as one thinks of the bodies and the souls of these same unfortunate children. They are not to blame for the conditions. In some instances possibly the parents are not to blame.
If you were a public officer and felt some special responsibility in the matter, what would you do if confronted with a case like this:
here are two little children, a boy and a girl, one three and the other four years old. Their hovel of a home is as filthy as such a place can be. There is practically no furniture. The father provides food and that is practically all.
The mother has no knowledge of housekeeping, is seldom at home,
and the little children fairly wallow in filth, much of the time by themselves day after day.
What would you do with a family of five motherless children, ranging in age from 6 to 18 years,
one of them an incorrigible, the others with no idea of right living—no knowledge of surroundings other than the utter squalor of the two rooms in which they eat, sleep and exist.
The records show that there are at least twenty families in Jacksonville where such children can be found. They are growing up in rags and tatters. They know nothing of personal pride or self-help. They are developing into beggars and mendicants, many of them well started on the way to moral leprosy.
Yes, there are scores of such children here in cultured Jacksonville. They are moving along the path that with certainty destroys life and character. They are moving rapidly on that journey while the well-educated, well-meaning, generous hearted people of Jacksonville are snugly comfortable around their own firesides, unaware of the conditions that exist.
The awakening must come and when the people here do really know about these cancer spots—when they get away from the thought that the stories of want and neglect are exaggerated,
when they see thru the eyes of court officers and welfare workers familiar with the facts—then they will apply the remedy.
If the men and women of this city could but visit these homes and see the conditions, then an awakened public conscience would quickly provide some proper means of caring for the city's neglected children, some plan of surrounding them with influences that tend to build character rather than to degrade and debauch.

there's such a wealth of plunder

COMPARATIVE COUNTY
TAX FIGURES

County Clerk G. L. Riggs yesterday forwarded to the auditor of taxes of Sangamon county a comparative statement showing the amount of taxes collected for county purposes in Morgan county during recent years. These figures are of general interest and show that the amount of taxes for county purposes, which will be collected this year is not as large as in 1917 and is practically the same as for the year 1918. The totals are as follows:
1916 county taxes $90,391.57.
1917 county taxes $163,807.78.
1918 county taxes $141,669.20.
1919 county taxes $142,847.31.

JACK PICKFORD COMING TO THE RIALTO

Jack Pickford secretly cherished a hope years ago, that he would, at one time or another, make the picture called "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" and he has at last realized his hope. "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" is the first Goldwyn starring vehicle for Jack Pickford, and can be seen at the Rialto Theatre, for two days, commencing Monday.
The story was written by the late John Fox, Jr. and concerns
a little mountain waif whose destiny, worked out by the God of Chance, transplants him from one grade of society to another with such ease and smoothness that the little mountain boy is not aware of the change.

Franklin Marquette Dramatic Club will present com-

HAS IMPORTANT POST

The friends of Philip H. Schaaf will be interested in knowing that he was recently elected a vice-president of the Youngstown Securities Co. Mr. Schaaf, it will be remembered, is a son of Dr.
D. S. Schaaf, for a number of years pastor of Westminster church. The company in which he is now an officer is one of the strong financial concerns of Youngstown.

Why a Trust Company To Manage Estates?

The trust company was created by law to act as executor and trustee under wills, administrators, guardians, etc.

Because So Many Individuals

- Are not sufficiently responsible
- Lack training and experience
- Fall sick, travel, pass away
- Have cares of their own

THIS Company

- Backs its fiduciary services with its capital of $100,000.00.
- Has had experience in managing estates.
- Has a permanent organization, ever accessible, always on duty.
- Makes a business of administering wills and managing estates; has no conflicting interests of its own; is an unfailing, disinterested representative of the testator.

If trust company service has been created for the express purpose of safeguarding estates—why not avail yourself of it? The fee is no higher than you would have to pay a competent individual.

Woolery-Galbraith. John W. Woolery and Emma Galbraith were united in marriage by Justice J. A. Crum at the court house Friday night. Mr. Woolery is employed in Jacksonville, where the couple will make their home. Mrs. Galbraith is from Buffalo, Illinois.

Baxter-Davies. The marriage of Miss Kathryn Davies and Mr. Earl W. Baxter was solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of the Christian church, was the officiating clergyman. The simple but impressive service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lane, 845 West State street, the bride being a sister of Mrs. Lane.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Baxter left for Springfield but will be absent from the county only a few days.

Mrs. Baxter is the valued teacher of the school in Bebel neighborhood and will continue in charge until the close of this school year. After that time the young people will be at home to their friends on a farm east of Jacksonville.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Baxter belong to families well and favorably known in the community in which they are to reside. Their wedding came as a surprise to a number of their friends but the congratulations will be none the less hearty and sincere.

Special display of Children's and Misses' Hats Monday and Tuesday. H. J. & L. M. SMITH.

Mrs. W. A. Wood of 214 Yates st. has returned from the home of her nephew, Robert Reed, east of Concord, Ill. where she was called to the sad home two weeks ago, when Mr. Reed and two children and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Adams, of near Lynnville and Miss Nancy Reed, of that vicinity is all doing nicely now. Mr. Reed had influenza, and abscess on the left lung, following it but it is hoped that Mr. Reed will recover soon. Mrs. White cared for the five patients all alone. It will be remembered the home was crowded and Mr. Reed's wife and baby passed away about two weeks ago, within a few hours apart. Mrs. White brought a little sixteen months old motherless child home with her where she will keep her with love and tender care until her father's recovery.

MAJOR CARL E. BLACK

the highest title deeds to remaining Greek of any nation. In fact, Greece is a possession and an inspiration of all mankind, and her influence has been felt thruout the world since the beginning—and in fact, long before—of the Christian era. She is a country that has conquered the souls of men and appeals to both the soul and the brain.

A Sentinel Nation.
"Greece is the one nation that has stood sentinel between the Asiatic hordes and Europe, and it is largely due to her efforts that Europe today remains European and not Asiatic. There is no greater misconception in history than the attempt to picture Greece as ignorant and servile. No matter how much Greece has been under the yoke of other nations, she has never been servile but has always preserved her ideals and her vision of a restored Greece. She has always maintained her schools and one of the first things which Greece did after securing her independence in 1829 was to put upon her statute books in 1834 a compulsory education law which has remained there ever since."

After a general statement of Greece and the Greek people, the speaker took the hearers over the work of the commission to Greece. He mentioned the fact that the head of the Greek commission was also a Jacksonville boy, Col. Edward Camps, professor of Greek in the university of Princeton, and that to be a member of the commission with Col. Camps, who had devoted all his life to the study of Greece and the Greeks, was a special privilege in itself.

After describing the trip across the Adriatic on a torpedo boat and the location of the commission and the securing of offices in Athens, lantern slides were used to show the work in Macedonia. Many scenes from Saloniki, Kavalla, Serres and Drama were shown, also a large number of pictures of refugees from eastern Macedonia, who had been carried by the Greeks to Bulgaria, and were just beginning to return at the time the Greek commission arrived.

In Prison Camps.
It was the speaker's special privilege to go into Bulgaria and visit all the prison camps where Greek refugees had been incarcerated and arrange for their return to Macedonia. He lived eight weeks in a freight car, traveling from place to place and negotiating the return of these wretched people. A large number of slides were shown illustrating the condition of the refugees, also slides showing the atrocities perpetrated by the Bulgarians upon the Greeks.

Special mention was made of the fact that Bulgarians sought out Greek school teachers, Greek priests and others of the educated class for slaughter. Various other activities of the commission, such as the artificial limb factory conducted by the speaker, thru which every soldier in Greece, who had lost a leg or an arm was furnished with an American leg or arm, were described; also the infant welfare stations in Athens and other parts of Greece. The audience was taken by submarine chasers on an excursion to Crete and were shown the home of Mr. Venizelos, the premier of Greece, and the pictures closed with a picture of Mr. Venizelos.

The speaker closed his address by reading from O'Connor's introduction to "Greece Before the Peace Conference," the following tribute to Mr. Venizelos:

"The Greece of the great war is embodied in one man. What figure, in this day of great figures, stands higher than that of the champion and mouthpiece of Greece—M. Venizelos? His combination of daring courage and of generous and broad toleration, shows a spirit as large and statesmanlike as it is courageous. What statesman of Europe has had to run such risks, to face such odds—the hourly threat of assassination, the combined influence of a court, at one time popular, and a general staff composed of men Prussian in training and Prussian in spirit and commanding an army under stern discipline, a democracy cheated and bullied and deceived.

Given the alternatives of war that was risky and a peace that, the ignoble, was safe, until he was compelled to at last make the last desperate resort to a rebellion and a divided country—has there ever been in history so heroic a struggle of one man against such a cohort of enemies, such an army of obstacles? It is Venizelos and not Constantine, that stands for Greece in this war; and the nation that chose rebellion, and then war, under the inspiration of a simple citizen, rather than unity and peace under a king, has testified more solemnly, more bravely to its real ideals than nations that have come into battle with a throne and a people and an army all united in opinion, and all ready to war together."

LOTS OF WATER

People living along the Vandalia road at the present time will be apt to say first a famine and then a feast. Several times the lake in Nichols park has been drained and now the water in Mauvaisterre lake was at noon yesterday within six inches of running over the spillway and was still slowly rising.

A gentleman was remarking yesterday on the immensity of the water shed into the new lake. He said as far away as Franklin, water coursed its way to the city's water supply. The low part of the road east of the Kitter place where William Crawley lived is two feet under water and grading will have to be done to keep that part of the Vandalia road open.

Supt. Cobb says he hopes soon to be giving the city cleaner water but at present there seems to be no help for the quality of the material that is going through the city water mains. Anyhow its wet and will put out fires.

Sale of Building Is Again Rumored—Negotiations Long Pending.

There was a well defined rumor Saturday that the Elks lodge had entered into a contract with the directors of the Y. M. C. A. for the purchase of the building. Neither representatives of the association nor the lodge would confirm the rumor altho the intimation was given that there might be some definite statement in the course of a few days.

It has been a matter of common knowledge that negotiations for the purchase of the building by the lodge have been pending for a number of weeks. It is understood that if the deal is consummated that the Y. M. C. A. will continue to operate in the present quarters for a number of months.

MRS. M. L. MORTON DIES SATURDAY NIGHT

Well Known Resident Passes Away after Long Illness—Was Daughter of George and Sarah Orear.

Mrs. M. L. Morton, a well known resident of the city passed away at the family home 715 South Main street at 9:45 o'clock Saturday night. She had been in failing health for several months and death was not unexpected.

Deceased was the daughter of George and Sarah Orear and was born east of the city in 1840. She was united in marriage to F. M. Morton in 1863, and they resided on the old Morton farm east of the city for many years. A number of years ago Mr. Morton moved a residence at 715 South Main street, and they moved to Jacksonville, where she has since resided.

Mr. Morton died three years ago and one son George W. Morton also died a few months afterward. Following the death of her husband and son, Mrs. Morton began to fail and she grew gradually weaker until she came at the hour indicated.

Mrs. Morton is survived by one brother, Judge T. B. Orear of this city and two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Dunlap, city and Mrs. Stephen Dunlap, east of the city. She also leaves five grandsons.

Mrs. Morton was a woman of fine qualities of heart and mind and was especially devoted to her home. By her kindly manner, she won many friends to whom news of her death will be received with regret.

Funeral services will be held from the residence 715 South Main street, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN MANY LINES OF WORK

Report Show Good Done in Opening Emergency Hospital at Passavant-Aid Given to Ex-Service Men.

That the local Red Cross is lined up on a definite peace program basis to do a fine construction work in the county was evident from the meeting held during the past week at headquarters.

The chairman, T. M. Tomlinson, presided with the following members of the Executive Committee present: J. J. Kelly, Earl M. Spink, W. Barr Brown, H. J. Rodgers, Mrs. Ralph I. Dunlap, Mrs. F. J. Heintz and Miss Norma Dawson, secretary for the Home Service Section.

The Chapter has reached out during the past month in three different ways—Home Service. The work which is being carried on with the ex-service men, the relief during the influenza epidemic through the Emergency Hospital, opened and operated by the Red Cross in the new wing of Passavant and the Child Welfare work, now being carried on by the Red Cross under Miss Clara Austin, who is now giving her full time to Red Cross.

The following report submitted by Rev. W. Ernest Collins of the work done by the Emergency Hospital was read: "The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Executive Committee of Morgan County Chapter immediately took up the matter of organization to meet influenza conditions in the county. A survey was made of the county conditions and it was found that the epidemic was at its full height."

"On the day following the Executive Committee meeting, at the call of one of the committee-men, H. J. Rodgers, the Executive Board of Passavant Hospital decided that they would place the new wing at the disposal of the Red Cross with the understanding that no expense incurred should be borne by the hospital. On Wednesday, the following day, your committee met with the Board of Passavant and made arrangements for opening the wing. It has arranged that Passavant Hospital should supply our patients and nurses with meals at a per capita cost."

"Miss Loving, tuberculosis nurse, was released for community work and Miss Austin, child-welfare nurse, was placed in charge of the new wing. The disposition of the committee was as follows: Mr. Rodgers, co-ordinating with the Passavant Hospital; Mrs. Klieh Montgomery, equipment; Miss Austin, nursing supervision."

"This equipment we have stored with the Jacksonville Transfer Co., in readiness for any further emergency. If the Executive Committee decides it would be best to dispose of this that action can be taken."

"The following nurses were secured and served either for part or full time: Miss Clara Austin, Mrs. E. L. Crouch, Mrs. J. W.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Of Interest to Expectant Mothers.

Goshen, Ind.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results after I had suffered for some time with female trouble. Some years ago I had twin boys and took your Vegetable Compound before they came. I also before my four-year-old boy was born, and afterwards, and I think it fine for such cases. I tell others what it did for me and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. Geo. A. Foos, 711 S. 9th St., Goshen, Indiana.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong and this good old fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

Lane, Miss Sophia Kerchoff, Miss Margaret Woulfe, Miss Straten, Mrs. Bessie Miley, Miss Maude Ryan.

"The following patients received hospital care: Thomas Roach, Bing King Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Keir, Mrs. Curtis Williams, Samuel Myers, Mrs. Slevens, Lonnie Creason, Mrs. A. F. Schaffer, Mrs. Nunes, Mrs. Yates, Miss Koserk, Thomas Holt, Mrs. Jessie Carter, Mrs. Tucker Hamilton, Earl Schaffer, Arthur Schaffer, Erma Schaffer, Mrs. Albert Fountain and Mrs. Wayne Rawlings."

"We received splendid co-operation from Miss Good and the members of her staff. We would like to pay tribute to the untiring efforts of Miss Lucy Mount in getting nurses for the hospital. Miss Austin proved herself a very efficient executive and in spite of the fact that we had to organize quickly and had not all the equipment necessary for running a hospital, yet the whole activity was characterized by a splendid spirit of harmony."

"We were not only concerned with those who actually came into the hospital but made ourselves responsible for conditions in the county as well and were able to procure nursing facilities for outlying points. We received calls from Litterberry, Mercedosa, Woodson, Murrayville, Alexander, Waverly, Chapin, and Concord."

"In the community of Jacksonville, Miss Loving made 81 calls, rendering such aid as was necessary and previous to her work, Miss Austin made numerous calls."

A total of $900 was expended by the Red Cross in operating the hospital, covering the purchasing of necessary equipment, nursing service, hospital service, etc. A detailed statement of expenditures is on file at the Red Cross.

Miss Norma Dawson, secretary of the Home Service Section, presented the following interesting report of the work of that department for February: "Of the seventy families dealt with by the Home Service Section during the month of February, the majority were compensation cases. Any ex-service man who is suffering from a disability, incurred while in active duty, or from a disability which existed at the time of enlistment, but which was increased during service, will be paid compensation by the U. S. government, in proportion as he is disabled, and as his earning capacity is decreased, if the disability is rated at 10 per cent or more. For a single man who is temporarily and totally disabled the rate is $80.00 per month; for total permanent disability it is $100.00."

"Until the Sweet bill was passed in December 1919, the rate was only $30 and $50. A man who has a total temporary disability recently came into our office to report that he had received his back compensation, the increase due to the Sweet bill, which amounted to about $1,000.00. A married man is given additional pay for his wife and each child. An allowance is also made for dependent parents. For each man who files a claim, the Red Cross fills out form 526, information concerning his service record, his employment, family, and parents, and etc."

"Any man who is receiving compensation is eligible to training under the Federal Board for Vocational Education and some of the Morgan county men have taken advantage of the opportunity."

"Every day information and assistance is given on Government Insurance. Many men who cannot afford to carry the full $10,000.00, are reducing the amount while others are converting their policies into permanent forms. Many of the men have either dropped or have allowed their insurance to lapse and after reading the new terms offered by the Government, they apply for reinstatement. Under the latest ruling, a man may reinstate, regardless of how long his insurance has lapsed, before July 1st, 1920 by paying only two months' premiums."

"Many other types of service were rendered by the Red Cross to ex-service men during the past month. Some of them have claims for back pay, allowance, or travel pay. Others are applying for Liberty Bonds, for which they subscribed while in service and have not received. Each month brings new cases of missing men. The majority of these are suffering from shell shock or mental derangement of some kind."

"There are many soldiers in Morgan county who are in need of service offered by the Red Cross but who are not aware of the fact that we are doing these things for them and therefore, a plan has been made which will enable us to get in touch with all of the ex-service men in Morgan county."

The report of Miss Austin, Child-Welfare nurse, showed the following:

Number of cases visited, 72
Adults with influenza.....25
Infants under 2 years.....10
Pre-School age.....20
School Children.....9
Prenatal cases.....8

Total.....72
Total visits to these cases, 80
Nature of visits—
Nursing.....48
Instructive.....32

Total visits.....80
Sixty of these visits were to patients with influenza pneumonia.

Sixteen days spent at the Emergency Hospital. Number of patients cared for, 21.

For the nursing activities, committee, Mrs. Ralph I. Dunlap, chairman reported that plans are under way for clinic to be held at the Red Cross, Tuesday, March 30th, for crippled children. At this time, Dr. East will be present, bringing his brace-maker with him so that the children can be fitted for braces. There are a number of cases in both Jacksonville and county that will doubtless take advantage of the clinic. Mrs. Heintz gave a resume of her work as secretary for the month and W. Barr Brown, treasurer, presented a detailed report of the receipts and disbursements for the month of February. A financial statement is sent in to Central D Headquarters every month showing expenditures of the Chapter.

STORAGE BATTERY

Prest-O-Lite for 1920 represents the highest developments in Storage Battery history on account of its uniform reliability. Each and every battery must qualify up to the Prest-O-Lite standard of perfection. Back of this battery is an unusual standard of service from 2,000 coast to coast service stations. These are points which caused forty leading manufacturers to select Prest-O-Lite as standard equipments for lighting, starting and ignition on all their cars. They know it to be the ultimate battery for POWER, VITALITY and ENDURANCE. We have a new battery in stock for every make of car. Drive around and let us give you free inspections.

From County Agent's Office

Why two years ago a man could buy clover seed at $18 per bushel and we told the farmers of the county it would be worth $25 in the spring and it was. Last fall we could have bought all the clover seed needed for Morgan County at prices ranging from $28 to $31.80 per bushel, but our farmer friends held back and are paying $35 to $40 now. Last fall we could have bought soybeans at $5 per bushel but this spring they are $7 per bushel, and will be higher at corn planting time. Why do not farmers buy when the buying is good? Would it not be good business?

Farm Accounting.
We have not said the last word on this subject and never expect to. In two years the county agent has never seen a well kept account book. As a whole the most of our farm account books show receipts and disbursements provided an interpreter is present to tell what it all means. The point we are trying to make is that not a single book shows where the leaks are in the farming game and is of decidedly doubtful value in deciding on a course of future action.

Farm Management.
This does not mean merely running a farm. It means keeping a set of books and gathering figures that can be used for interpreting results concerning farm operations the same as any other business. As a subject in agricultural colleges, it is comparatively recent, but there is something to it from a standpoint of business efficiency. A farmer from Iowa expressed his opinion about the matter last summer when the county agent met him in Minnesota. He said "I keep one of those books gotten out by the people at Ames. Every year I take it to one of the experts during the short course. They think a man who cannot pay expenses get 5 per cent on his investment, and a reasonable salary or labor income besides ought to have someone else to run his business for him. He agreed with these men. Farm management shows that very thing."

An Old Song.
In the shade of the old apple tree,
Where the snow and the rain
blow so free.

It's no place to store
The binder and mower
And implements there that we see;

For the rust and the rot, you'll agree,
Are worse than hard usage
would be.

And the paint that they wore
Is a shade, nothing more—
Just the shade of the old apple tree.

Hessian Fly Lives thru Winter.
Recent examination of Hessian Fly puparia taken this spring from infested wheat field show that less than 5 per cent of the fly have been killed by the weather conditions during the winter. As parasites are very scarce, having been taken in only three or four localities in central and southern Illinois, it is highly probable that the spring brood of the fly will be very abundant. For this reason it is not advisable to sow spring wheat in the vicinity of infested fields of winter wheat, as such wheat would be almost sure to suffer heavy damage from the spring brood of the fly. Oats may be safely sown in or adjoining infested wheat fields, as the Hessian Fly never attacks the plant.

PLANT PLANS SHOW SIGHTLY BUILDING

Local Contractors Getting Ready to Submit Bids—Filtration Provisions Best Known.

The city is now advertising for bids for the power plant and pumping station it is proposed to erect this year. The plans and specifications are in the office of the H. L. Caldwell Engineering Co., and bids are to be received until Wednesday, March 24. Blue prints giving the general idea of the elevations of the building and interior arrangements are now on view in the window of the Journal Office.

Altho materials are now somewhat difficult to secure, a number of local contractors are intending to figure on this construction work, which is not of an especially difficult kind. As previously explained, the building will be erected on land purchased from Mrs. Mary Dunavan on the north side of Superior avenue just east of the Chicago & Alton right of way. By locating the building there it will be easily approached by a switch extended from the north. This switch will be placed on a trestle for a part of the distance and then carried on trestle work to the coal bunker which will be on the west side of the main building.

Ample Coal Storage. The trestle work type of construction was decided upon by Engineer Caldwell because it is not more expensive than a cylinder full and will provide additional coal storage space at times when it is necessary to store coal. The elevated track will run into the coal bunker in such a way that the cars can be dumped automatically.

This bunker adjoins the boiler room and the coal will be taken from the bunker to a space in front of the boilers on an industrial track. The coal bunker is 91 by 22 feet in the general dimensions and 18 feet high without a roof. It will hold 575 tons of coal.

The boiler room which is next east of the bunker, is 25 feet high and 51 by 61 1/2 feet in general dimensions. To the east is the engine room, 73 by 61 1/2 feet in its general dimensions and 16 feet high.

Still further to the east are the filters with the coagulating basin at the southeast corner of the whole structure. According to Mr. Caldwell's figures 727 cubic yards of excavation will be necessary for the entire structure and concrete work will total 841 cubic yards. The amount of steel necessary will be 41,500 pounds and 127,000 brick will be required.

The building is so planned that adjacent to the engine and boiler room is an office together with wash room and lockers. The water will be conveyed from the reservoir in a 14 inch main, going into the coagulating basin. There the water will spout into the air and thru pressure certain impurities will coagulate and flock in such a manner as to sink to the bottom of the basin and be carried off thru a sewer.

The Filtering Process. From this coagulating basin the water will be run thru the filter here by chemical action of lime or common alum it will be purified. Then it will pass thru 3 feet of sand and gravel before reaching the clear well and be forced by the pumps into the high level main thru which it will be conveyed to consumers.

The sand and gravel will be washed by running water under pressure backwards thru the filter. This process will take place at least once in every 24 hours or more frequently if the condition of the water makes it desirable.

The capacity of the plant will be a million and a half gallons per day but if occasion arises this capacity can be greatly overloaded. The stack will be at the north side of the main building 150 feet in height by 6 feet 6 inches in diameter. While the plans show a plain and compact, it is evident also from the elevations that a very slightly structure has been planned.

PROF. A. T. VAN LAER DIED AT INDIANAPOLIS

Well Known Artist Passed Away Friday—Was at head of Art Department of Old Athenaeum—Married a Miss Stickney.

Mrs. R. M. Hockenbush, received a message Saturday announcing the death of Prof. A. T. Van Laer, a former resident of this city, which occurred at a sanatorium in Indianapolis Friday.

Prof. Van Laer was well known to many of Jacksonville's older residents. In the early '80's he was at the head of the Art Department of the Young Ladies Athenaeum which was located on Sandy street, just south of the building occupied by the Armstrong drug store.

Mr. Van Laer married Miss Stickney, one of the teachers in the school. After leaving Jacksonville they went to New York City, where Mr. Van Laer became quite famous in the world of art. A picture from his brush was shown in the recent exhibit of paintings at Illinois Woman's college.

For a number of years the family home has been in Litchfield, Conn.

HOME FROM THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patterson have returned from an extensive tour of several western states and are now at their home 811 West North street. While absent they spent some time in California and were much pleased with the southern part, Los Angeles, Pasadena and vicinity, but didn't like it so well in and about San Francisco as the climate was damp and disagreeable. They were some time in New York, Nebraska, and also visited Colorado Springs and various other well known western places and are glad enough to be at home again.

While traveling on the Denver and Rio Grande road they had quite an experience. An avalanche of snow and earth fell on the track ahead of their train, delaying them quite a while but finally the track was cleared and the train proceeded far enough to escape a worse disaster when a huge boulder fell from an adjacent height and knocked out a section of the track. This was behind them for which they were truly thankful.

MORE HONORS FOR CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Another group of girls from the Yolasovi camp fire won the fire-makers' honors yesterday. They served a supper to other members of the camp fire at the Congregational church and it was indeed an enjoyable occasion. The girls in this group were: Caroline Deane, Lois Harney, Elizabeth Scott and Helen Cleary. The decorations were suggestive of St. Patrick's day. The girls were limited to an expenditure of 20c per plate but accomplished excellent results with this expenditure.

You've Invested Money in Your Auto

Like every other investment, whether money, time or labor, you want the biggest dividend obtainable. Auto dividends are measured by the amount of service the auto gives and the economy with which it does it.

If your car is laid up half the time by reason of hit or miss repairing and you waste the other half in urging it to run, the returns on your investment have not been very great.

If you expect to get proper returns on the money laid up in your car you must consider the man who proposes to take care of your service wants. Does he know what he is doing or is he merely experimenting.

TAKE NO CHANCES. But make it your business to patronize the place that employs nothing but experts.

DEBATING CUP ON EXHIBITION

Jacksonville Brings Back Cup From Springfield—Will Be Permanent Property of School Receiving the Greatest Number of Judges' Decisions in Three Years.

The cup given by the Wrangler's Debating Society of Springfield high school for a prize in debating is on exhibition in the window of the Schram & Buhrman Jewelry store.

The cup is of handsome design and contains the following:

PRESENTED TO
By
The Wrangler's Debating Society of Springfield High School For Superiority in Debating 1920, 21 and 22.

The cup will be held for one year by the school winning in that particular year. Jacksonville will, therefore, have it until March, 1921.

At the end of the three years' period the cup will become the property of the school which has gained greatest number of judge's decision during the period.

The Jacksonville affirmative team which debated here was composed of Charles Keep, Mary Sim, Howard Nicol and Presley Dawson.

The negative team that debated in Springfield was composed of Harry Fitch, Thelma Pires, Ralph Floreth and Robert Furry.

Miss Anna English was the coach of the team and naturally is highly elated at the signal victory won by her proteges.

BLAMES UNITED STATES FOR 2000 ARMENIANS SLAIN

The United States is responsible for the death of the 2000 Armenian civilians reported slain in Asia Minor, according to Rev. John Elder, of the McCormick Theological Seminary, who has just returned from Western Asia where he was with the Near East Relief, helping save the lives of thousands of women and children who are dying of starvation there.

"The Allies all know that Mustapha Pasha is leading a counter revolution in Turkey, and that one of his aims is to wipe out the Armenian race. Yet nothing has been done by any nation to save from extinction these Christian people, planted in the midst of a barbaric civilization.

"England, almost bankrupt, now has one-fourth of the world to take care of. She cannot properly take the burden of Armenia on her shoulders. At Nakhechevan, ten thousand Armenians were massacred, two weeks after they returned to the homes they had been forced to evacuate because British protection was withdrawn, and they were not allowed to have any arms in a country where the Tartars who had sworn to wipe them off the face of the earth, lurked in ambush, armed to the teeth.

"That is why I say the United States should do something. These people are wholly dependent on our generosity for their very lives. Before political action can be taken, the Armenian race will be extinct unless the charity of America comes in.

NEW BERLIN WANTS TO PLAY KNIGHTS

Manager Sends Challenge to Journal—Says Has Written to Manager of Knights of Columbus and Received No Reply.

The manager of the New Berlin Merchants, an independent aggregation of basketball tossers wants a series of games for his team with the Knights of Columbus team.

The New Berlin manager says he was promised two games earlier in the season but has been unable to get them. Manager Flood of the Knights of Columbus team could not be located last night and his side of the story cannot be given. The challenge follows:

New Berlin, Ill.,
March 11, 1920.

Sporting Editor,
Dear Sir:

The New Berlin Merchants challenge the K. of C. basketball team of Jacksonville for two games of basketball, one to be played at New Berlin, with a neutral man as referee.

The K. of C. manager promised the Merchants' manager two games early in the season but so far the Merchants have been unable to make arrangements with the K. of C. Manager and the Merchants would like to know the reason why they cannot secure these games as they have written twice for games but as yet have received no reply.

The Merchants defeated the Meter Works team of Springfield here tonight in a fast game.

The Merchants' team consists of a fast bunch of men and should put up a good game with the K. of C. team.

(Signed) Homer Bartholomew, Manager New Berlin Merchants.

CHEST CLOGGED UP WITH HEAVY COLD?

Don't give it a chance to "set in"—use Dr. King's New Discovery

THAT dangerous stage where a cold or cough or croup or grippe might set the better of you may be nearer than you think. Prompt action with Dr. King's New Discovery will avert a long siege.

For fifty years it has loosened congested chests, dissipated tight packed phlegm, broken vicious colds and coughs. Give it to the youngsters—take it yourself. There will be no disagreeable after-effects.

60c. and $1.20 a bottle. At your druggist. Give it a trial.

Bowels Become Normal

—liver livens up, bile flows freely—headache, biliousness, tongue-fur, stomach-sourness, disappear when Dr. King's New Life Pills get in their natural, comfortable action.

Purgatives, never pleasantly corrective, sometimes habit-forming should not be taken to rack the system violently. Nature's way is the way of Dr. King's New Life Pills—gently but firmly functioning the bowels, eliminating the useless clogging waste, and promoting the most gratifying results. Cleanse the system with them and know the boon of regular bowels. 25c. at all druggists.

ILLINOIS MAN HAS GAINED 30 POUNDS

Enjoys Good Health for First Time in Twenty-Five Years—Praises Tanlac.

"Since I started taking Tanlac I have not only gained thirty pounds in weight, but for the first time in twenty-five years I am enjoying good health," said J. J. Craig, of 421 North Madison street, Bloomington, Ill., recently.

"Yes, sir, I am fifty years of age," he continued, "and twenty-five of these years have been spent in misery and suffering without a let-up until I began taking Tanlac. I was never able to eat a thing without filling up with gas afterwards and having such intense cramping pains in my stomach I could hardly stand them. Why at times I would have these spells of cramps while at work, and have to be taken home, where I would lie for hours almost unconscious. I was all run down and weak, and would play out before I had worked half a day, and very often had to quit and go home. But, thanks to Tanlac, this is all a thing of the past, now.

Tanlac has simply made a new man of me, and it has given me good health, something I never expected to have again. I can sit down, now, and eat anything without its hurting me the least bit. I am never troubled with gas and never have the least sign of a pain in my stomach. I feel strong and vigorous all the time, and am able to work every day and all day long with the greatest ease. No, sir, I wouldn't take all the money in Bloomington for what Tanlac has done for me, and I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and by the leading drug stores in every town.

Facts Worthy of Your Consideration

Excerpts from Address of President A. H. Kenniebrew, to the Illinois Medical Association, June 15, 1918—

"As physicians you must realize the fact that RESULTS OF YOUR WORK tell the people more about your skill and ability than your sheepskin or social standing.

"The sick man desires health, the dying man pleads for extension of life—Now if you can deliver the goods—if you can diagnose the case more accurately, remove the cause more successfully, the fool will forget his folly, the sensible man his prejudices, and place their fate in your care.

"It is a pitiful confession of intellectual inferiority on the part of any physician, white or black, to appeal to the sympathies or prejudice of his race for professional preferment.

"PROVE that you possess SUPERIOR ABILITY and SKILL and regardless of your race, I assure you that the human thirst for that WHICH IS BEST will shower you with recognition and crowd the pathway to your office. REMEMBER that you can no more HOLD A COMPETENT MANDATE than you can an IN-COMPETENT ONE UP."

Where Battery Care Stops and Tinkering Begins

One of the bits of advice that strike the eye of every man who runs through the numerous articles on motor care, or who studies an instruction book is this—"Don't tinker." Nearly all of them leave the reader in doubt as to just where proper care leaves off and tinkering begins.

Webster says that the tinkerer is "one skilled in petty mechanical work", but that doesn't exactly fit the present meaning. The trouble with most habitual tinkerers is that they aren't skilled at all.

A man may be a lawyer or a doctor or a real estate agent but if he is a natural mechanic and knows why he grinds his valves and how to do it, and exactly how the pieces go together, he can surely grind valves without being accused of tinkering. So a thing that would be tinkering for one man is PROPER care for another.

It is just about the same with batteries, but there are fewer car owners who are at home in the special field of battery care than in those parts that concern only mechanical knowledge.

So, for practically all owners the line between battery care and battery tinkering is quite sharply drawn. The only safe rule is to put water in regularly to keep the solution at the proper level, and to keep connections tight, but aside from that to let the battery entirely alone.

We maintain a Willard Storage Battery service station equipped to give adequate assistance, and urge owners to take advantage of this service to lengthen the life of their batteries.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

This week end was a festive one for the Juniors. Saturday evening they were the guests of the Freshmen at a party given in the society halls. The program was filled with several musical numbers and stunts. Red and white, the Junior colors, were dominant in the decorations.

The Senior-Junior party was given Monday evening, March 8, in the gymnasium. The vestibule was fitted up invitingly, and the main gym was made more cheerful and festive by a fire in the big fireplace. After the informal program, the curtain of the stage rolled up, disclosing luncheon tables decorated in the spirit of St. Patrick. It was a delightful affair, one of the most enjoyed formal of the school year.

Miss Adrienne Siple led the Sunday Y. W. C. A. meeting which was a most interesting discussion of the subject "Leadership vs. Citizenship."

Miss Winifred Willard, a representative of the Centenary Board of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the only woman serving in such a capacity, was the guest of the college Tuesday and Wednesday. It was through the kindness of Dr. Hancher that she was permitted to come even for so brief a visit. She spoke in morning chapel Tuesday and Wednesday and at evening chapel Wednesday. Her talks were vital and impressively given. Miss Willard is the daughter of Dr. E. P. Willard, formerly of Jacksonville, and her mother was a student at the Woman's college.

Among the college guests over the week end are the following: Miss Celesta Ellige, Miss Frances Fowler, Miss Lois Coultas, Miss Nettie Overturn, Miss Helen Suduth and Inez Reel, Miss Grace Madden, Miss Agnes Rebecca Miller, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Julia Ruson and Freida Beatty, Mrs. Davis, Nelson of Barry, Mrs. L. T. Cooper of Alexis, and Mrs. K. B. Freeman of Champaign.

President Harker returned Thursday after several days conference in Chicago.

Much interest is centered in the inter-class games in basket ball. The gymnasium is now in use six days a week getting ready for the annual exhibition which will come in April.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The tax books are now in the collector's office and is a judgment against all parties mentioned therein.

Parties paying on personal tax only, should pay the same promptly and avoid trouble and expense in collecting same. The judgment reads as follows: In case any person named in said books shall neglect or refuse to pay their personal tax, you shall levy the same by distress and sale of goods and chattels of such person. Parties paying on real estate should bring their old tax receipts to save time and avoid mistakes. If paying thru the banks, leave your old receipts with your bank as soon as possible.

At last—the story you've longed to see!

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come!"

THE book everyone read—the story everybody loves and remembers, that made John Fox, Jr.'s reputation. It's alive for you now!

You watch Chad, brave and boyish, facing into the world with his rifle and his dog—

You see him fighting his way through the mountains of Kentucky, winning, unconsciously, Melissey. And then like a blow in the face comes his rejection by proud Lexington society.

How his Buford pride tells then!

You know him even better than in the book as you see Chad woo the winsome Margaret; you see Melissey, faithful and forgotten, sacrifice her life to clear his name.

You watch him through the agony and terror of the Civil War—watch that awful ride through death to save his enemy!

Gripping, full of suspense, fear, laughter and a touch of pathos, it is an absorbing picture. Don't miss seeing it—a great American landmark come to life.

INCUBATORS

THE KLONDIKE Incubator

A GOOD ONE

BECAUSE:

It has a double glass top with dead air space between the glass which forms a perfect insulation, which retains the heat. By this arrangement, the entire incubator is visible for inspection, and the cardboard cover can be placed over the glass top to darken the egg chamber, as it is a well known fact that eggs hatch better in the dark.

—The Klondike system of hot water heating differs from all others, in that it does not use any hot water boiler on the outside of the machine. The heat from the lamp passes through a copper tube, the entire length of the incubator. This tube is enclosed in a larger tube, and the space between is filled with water (just like the tube in a steam boiler). This exposes the largest possible amount of water to the heating surface. Our rapid water circulating system insures an even temperature in all parts of the machine.

Eight models are made from 120 to 300 egg capacity. We heat one cubic inch of water for every egg in each size incubator.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

The Ideal Five-Passenger Car

Those who know the lofty purpose which inspired the building of our new Paige Glenbrook do not wonder that this Light Six model so quickly gained the distinction of being the ideal five-passenger car.

Our one great aim was to make the Glenbrook so obviously superior to any other car of its class that it would be recognized at once as such.

In building it, therefore, we made no compromises. Beauty, comfort and mechanical excellence all had to meet the high standard of perfection which we had established as the ideal toward which we were striving.

The best evidence of the success of our efforts is the Glenbrook itself.

Powered with a six-cylinder motor—of original Paige design and built in the Paige shops—and equally well equipped in body and chassis, this latest member of the Paige family has brought to American motorists new standards of dependability and economy in five passenger motor cars.

See the Glenbrook—and ride in it. You will then have first-hand knowledge of the qualities which have justly entitled this new Paige model to be called "the ideal five-passenger motor car".

WHEN THE HUMAN MACHINE GOES WRONG

Nature intended that each human body when in normal condition should always be healthy. Weakness and disease are therefore the results of deranged function in some part of the body due to an interference with Nature's way.

Through Chiropractic methods, every part of the body can be brought to normal and made strong and healthy because the forces of Nature have been permitted to resume their work of nourishing, strengthening and repairing worn out, weak tissues and organs.

Chiropractic helps Nature to restore and rejuvenate run-down bodies. It can make the system tingle with vigorous life-energy and do it easily, simply and naturally. While this new science will not do the impossible, it will benefit even after all other methods have proved incapable of reaching the trouble. Thousands have found full restoration to natural health through because it removes the cause of the interference with Nature, without the use of drugs or surgery. Have a competent chiropractor give you a free Chiropractic (KI-RO-PRAK-TIC) analysis and see wherein this science can help you to health and happiness.

CONCORD YOUTH TELLS OF ARMY EXPERIENCES

Elmer L. Hamm Gives Interesting Account of His Experiences as a Member of Co. L, 127th Inf., 32nd Division.

Elmer L. Hamm of Concord has sent in the following account of his experiences in the army. The young man was in the service from June 28, 1918 until March, 1919, and during that period spent a number of months on French soil. His story will doubtless be read with interest by many.

At about 5:30 on June 28, 1918, I left Jacksonville for Camp Taylor, via the C. and A. We went as far as East St. Louis, then on the L. and N. the rest of the way. We passed thru Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and it was there I saw my first cotton growing.

We stopped at Memphis, Tenn., for about thirty minutes one night at midnight. It appeared to be a large city from what we saw of it. At various large cities in which we stopped the Red Cross gave us fine eats. When we got off the train at Camp Taylor there were lots of boys there in camp, and they told us they knew we had happy homes and that it was too bad we had to leave them.

We were at Camp Taylor about three weeks and had a good time there. Some of us were called out one day to go somewhere else, we did not know where until we arrived there, and it was Louisiana. We were there for eleven days at rifle range. It was so hot and dusty there that at night we looked like hogs. It rained once while we were there but in five minutes afterward you could not tell it had rained. Someone said it was 118 degrees in the shade.

One evening about 4 o'clock they called all of us out to line with our packs and called the roll. Some one said "Count off thirty on the left," and I was the twenty-ninth one. They told us all to go back to our tents and back we went. I certainly felt sorry to see all of the boys I knew go and leave me there in that hot place.

At about 5:15 that evening we were called out and they told us to get our packs on if we wanted to get out of there. We sure did hurry to get them on and then we marched to the railroad and boarded a train. We didn't know where we were going. We rode a long way that time, went thru North Carolina, stopping at Raleigh to take a walk for exercise. Here we were given ice cream and cookies and a large glass of milk by the Red Cross. Some good farmers were also there and gave us a lot of watermelons. We crossed a tunnel about six miles long and some of the boys declared we were crossing the ocean on a train.

We rode for two nights and a day, and then landed at Newport News, Va. At the camp there I ran across a number of the home boys and was lucky to be put in the same barracks with them. We were at Newport News three days then we went aboard a ship, the Aboukir, and started for somewhere. We had fine sailing for a few days, but we certainly did get tired of water. On August 13 we had rough water and the same was true of the next two days. The first day the water was rough I was lying out on the top deck asleep, when the ship dipped water and I got wet. I soon woke and got down from there, believe me. The second night Clark Colwell and I were lying on a table and one big wave dashed in on us and I said to him "Come on with me. I know a place where we won't get wet." We crawled into a dark corner on some big boards and slept there the rest of the night.

Some of the boys were very scared going over and spent most of their time leaning over the rail. We were on the water twelve days, landing at Brest on August 18. We worked all night long unloading the ship, and the next morning we left the ship. All that day and for three or four days afterward it seemed as if the ship was moving.

After being near Brest for two days we boarded a train and rode for two days, and a day, and got off and hauled a distance of 11 kilometers to a town called LeVieux. There we stayed for three weeks. Then one day they called a bunch of us out to go to some other place. Some of the home boys were separated from us then. We went to a railroad head they called Deboyn and stayed for four days, then went to another place for two days and still another place where we were on a salvage detail for 13 days. It was then we made the acquaintance of the "cooties" and they certainly are fine little pets. At this place we saw lots of airplanes going over, sometimes there would be as many as 35 or 40 in one group. We could hear the big guns roaring in the distance.

We joined our company on the Verdun front. It was Co. L, 127th Infantry, 32nd division. I was wounded on Oct. 14, from a rifle grenade and had to go to the hospital. I was there about nine days then they sent me from place to place. I was on my way back to my company when the armistice was signed. We were sure glad to hear of that and celebrated the day in great style.

I finally got back to my company on Nov. 23 and found them on their way to the Rhine. I hiked with them until Dec. 5 when I took the bronchitis and was sent back to the base hospital at Toul. I was there a long time then went to base hospital No. 159, then to hospital No. 65 at Brest and from there to the ship to come back to the good old U. S. A. We boarded the ship Feb. 24, 1919 and were there 48 hours before we finally sailed. We were 8 days coming back and were on board the Leviathan, the largest ship that sails the ocean.

We had just one day and night of rough water coming back, March 4. There were lots of white caps and the waves were so high that they broke two windows on the eighth deck. I got lost the first day I was on board. Went down to the mess hall and when I came back I was looking for my bunk number. I told the guard what I was looking for and he asked what my deck was. I told him and he said "You are two decks too high." No wonder I got lost, for there were 20,000 on that ship. Just think, a ship that size could come to Jacksonville and take all of the people on board at one time.

We landed at New York on March 6, just at noon and the Red Cross gave us a good dinner. Soon afterward we boarded the train for Camp Merritt, N. J., where we remained a few days. While I was there I had a bone felon on my thumb and could not sleep at night it pained me so. The Red Cross nurse did everything she could to ease the pain and on the third day she sent me to the doctor to have it lanced. Everything grew dark to me and the doctor asked what was the matter. I said "I suppose I fainted." He asked me if I fainted in France and I said "No, sir, but I am back in the U. S. now."

We left Camp Merritt one day at 11 o'clock on board a fast train. We did not stop for anything except to change engines and to leave some cars which were going to some other camp. We took water on the run thru Pennsylvania and Indiana. We arrived in Chicago at noon the next day and were there until 4:30. The Red Cross gave us our dinner here also. That afternoon we left for Camp Grant, where I remained for a few days until my discharge came. When it arrived I came home on the first train, and I sure was glad to get back to the dear old home once more. The boys from my home town who were in the same company with me were Clark Colwell, Edwin Perbix and Ward Mallicoat. It was great that we four could be together thru it all.

ST. LOUIS WOMEN AID ARMENIAN RELIEF

Former Jacksonville Woman Is Head of Committee Engaging In Important Relief Work.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat in recent issue tells of an important philanthropic movement which women there have undertaken. Mrs. M. Maynard Post, before her marriage was Miss Mary Tanner of this city is the chairman of the committee. The Globe said:

The maternal spirit of St. Louis womanhood, which, during the past four years has so often been demonstrated in philanthropic and charitable matters, again manifested itself during the past week when prominent society and business women assumed the task of "adopting" 500 Armenian orphans at $150 each, aggregating $90,000. The contributions will be made through the Near East Relief, an organization chartered by an act of Congress, and formerly known as the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief. The orphan per capita required by the organization provides food, clothing, housing and industrial education for one year.

Coupled with the penitence season of Lent, many of these women felt it apropos to give of their time and effort in the cause of the destitute children of Armenia and Syria. Under the leadership of Mrs. M. Maynard Post as chairman of the St. Louis Women's Division, much work has already been done throughout the city toward stimulating interest in the movement. Plans for raising the women's goal of $90,000 took concrete form at a delightful luncheon meeting in the ballroom of the Hotel Statler at noon Friday.

Gathered at this meeting were almost 100 women, prominent in social and business circles, who pledged their hearty co-operation in the movement. Patriotic, Catholic, Jewish and Protestant organizations, together with women's political organization, were represented. Letters endorsing the movement from Archbishop John J. Glennon, Rabbi Leon Harrison and Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle were read.

A series of functions are being planned by the various women's organizations to raise money for the movement.

St. Louis women have established a country-wide reputation for doing things in a big way, their efforts at different times resulting in the gathering of funds running well into six figures," said Mrs. Post. "It would be possible for these big-hearted women, actively interested in this movement, to raise this amount among themselves within twenty-four hours, but it is felt best that every woman in the city be given an opportunity to do something for these unfortunate orphans of the Near East, regardless of how small the contribution might be."

STUDENT DIES AFTER BOXING BOUT

New York, March 12.—Andrew Lockett, a student at Columbia university was arraigned today on an affidavit charging him with homicide in connection with the death last night of Milton Sternfeld of Albany, another student, after the two young men had engaged in a boxing bout at a class smoker. Lockett was held in bail of $2,500 for a hearing March 18. Bail was provided.

Edward Fyves, an uncle of Sternfeld told the court of the close friendship between his nephew and Lockett and expressed the opinion that Sternfeld's death was not caused by the blows.

They Don't Clean Teeth

In Your Way Now—Not the Men Who Know

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

They Now Combat the Film

Dental science has found a new way to clean teeth—a way that combats the film.

Able authorities have proved it for years in clinical and laboratory tests. The facts are beyond any question. Leading dentists all over America now urge people to adopt it, and a million or more have done so.

This method, for home use, is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And this week we offer, to every home in this city, enough for a ten-day test. For your own sake you should make that test.

Why Teeth Discolor and Decay

You can feel on your teeth a slimy film. It is ever-present, ever-forming. It clings to the teeth, gets between the teeth, enters crevices and stays.

The tooth brush does not end it. The ordinary dentifrice does not dissolve it. So, night and day, that film may do ceaseless damage. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Also of many other troubles, local and internal.

You Must End It

Millions of people find that brushed teeth discolor and decay. Tartar forms and pyorrhea starts. Statistics show that, despite the tooth brush, tooth troubles have been constantly increasing.

The reason lies in that film. To prevent the troubles you must end the film. Let this ten-day test show you the way to do it.

Now Millions of Teeth Are Kept Whiter

Pepsodent is now applied to millions of teeth every day. The result is seen everywhere in glistening teeth. Some of your friends can show them.

Those teeth glisten because they are clean. The film is kept removed. Now we ask you to see how your own teeth look after a ten-day use.

Based on Pepsin

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to constantly combat it.

Pepsin long seemed forbidden. It must be activated, and the usual method is an acid harmful to the teeth. What science has now found is a harmless activating method. Now pepsin can be applied twice daily—can be left between the teeth. And five years have proved that this discovery opens a new dental era.

Look at Your Teeth in Ten Days

The results are easily shown and we urge you to see them. Read how they come about. Then decide for yourself what is best for your teeth and for your children's teeth.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Use like any tooth paste. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Compare the results with your present methods. Remember that those whiter teeth mean cleaner teeth—teeth kept free from film. Then decide for yourself about going back to former cleaning methods.

Make the test this week, while the 10-Day Tube is free. The result will be of lifetime importance to you. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

Factory Enlarged—Production Doubled to Meet Increasing Popularity of Cole Aero-EIGHT

DURING 1919 only a fraction of the demand for Cole Aero-EIGHTS could be supplied, despite the fact that it was the largest production year which the Cole Motor Car Company had ever had. With the expansion of the factory to twice its former size, this production of Aero-EIGHTS will be more than doubled in 1920.

Though this will enable many motorists to own Cole Aero-EIGHTS who never before have been able to enjoy that privilege, several thousand unfilled orders carried over from 1919, must be accorded preferential deliveries during the early months of the present year.

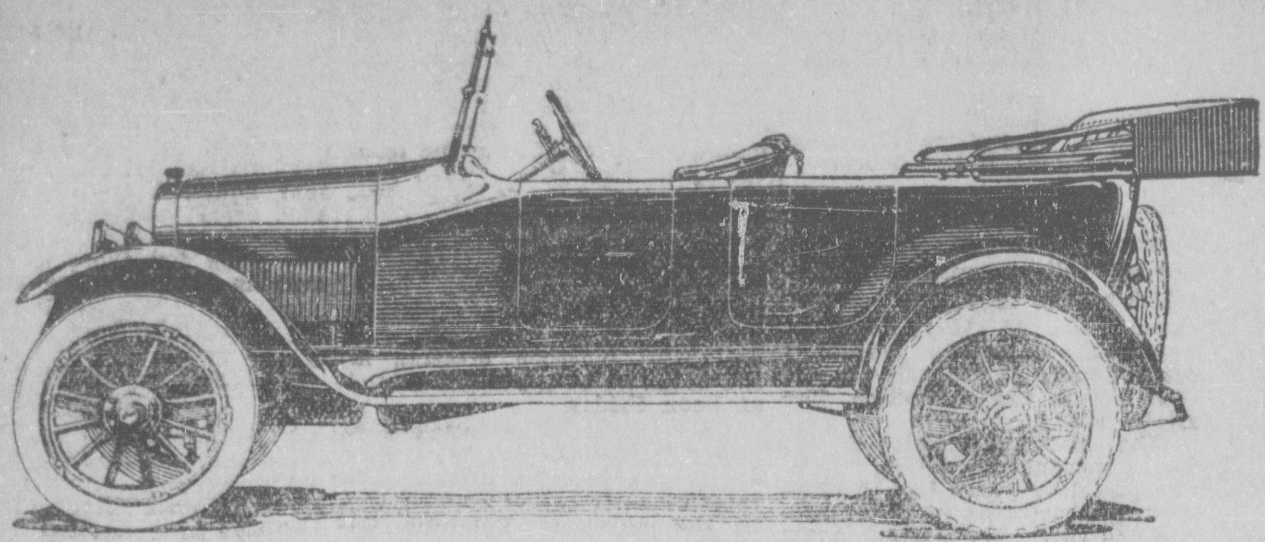

Hence, all who now contemplate the purchase of Cole Aero-EIGHTS are urged to place their orders without delay, indicating the date of delivery desired, so that equitable distribution of the product may be made and prompt deliveries assured.

THE MAXWELL

Invite You to Take a

TECHNICAL JOY RIDE WITH THEM

Being a Little Chat on Well-Known Automobile Terms as Applied to a Maxwell.

If we can have your attention for just a few moments, we will explain in a non-technical manner terms used by the general public, referring to the different parts of an automobile.

First, we notice the automobile running along a very rough road. We can see the wheels bounding up and down, but the occupants are enjoying every comfort of a pleasant ride as though they were riding on a very smooth road. "Compensating underslung spring action is the answer." "Every Maxwell has it."

Next, we follow the car to a sandy road; the ruts are very deep. We turn the curve with ease and if we wish to release our hold on the steering wheel, the front wheels will stay in their paths. The wheels do not turn off the road when they come in contact with ruts or road obstructions, as the car ahead does. We have absolute control, ease and comfort—no fatigue. "That's the irreversible steering gear." "You'll find it on every Maxwell."

Now we stop to look over the beautiful scenery, or have lunch at the farm house. On returning to the car we step in, press the button and we are ready to start. With gears in first speed we gradually let the clutch in, and, with the velvet getaway of a passenger train we start on our trip—no jerking, no clutch grabbing. That is a sure sign of the "Cone clutch running in oil." "It's on the Maxwell."

Next, we start to climb a hill. With ease we pass the summit—no jerking, no changing gears, no waste of gasoline or tires. They're built to do it. "That's the hot spot and rams horn manifold." "They have it on the Maxwell."

We also note there is no heat coming off the motor to mar the pleasures of our trip; no stopping to fill up with water or to let the engine cool off. "There's a reason." "It's the thermo syphon cooling system." "They use it on the Maxwell."

We drive along an even stretch of concrete road, out in the country—no danger, no sheriff, so we "step on it" and the response is surprising. It speeds on until objects blur before our vision. That surely was a thriller! But stop and think the reason why. Of course you know it is "power." It's surely in the Maxwell.

Three Superior Models are Here: The Roadster, Touring and Sedan Come, Ride With Us in Your Favorite Model

BY L. C. FREEMAN

Maxwell Executive Engineer

Being in no way responsible for the Maxwell car as it is built today and consequently not open to the accusation of touting my own achievements, I can speak of it more frankly than can these other members of the organization who had a hand in its development, design and marketing.

The Maxwell is one of the best light cars built in America. From the standpoint of simplicity of construction, weight reduction, and ease of control this car compels admiration.

The man that expects more automobile for his money than he gets in a Maxwell won't buy this year—or next—for it is not to be had. Improvements will from time to time be incorporated in Maxwell, certainly, and this same statement is true of all other cars, but the improvements in some of the other cars are going to lie in the adoption of some of the things that Maxwell has now. To be specific, here are just two out of many—clutch and hot spot manifolds.

The designers have avoided extremes—the motor is large enough so it does not have to be run at excessive speed; it has a conservative speed; it has a conservative compression pressure and an oil pump big enough for two motors.

I think that Maxwell suffers from an excess of modesty—just because it sells for less than a thousand we think that's the kind of an automobile it is. It isn't—dress it up in a couple of hundred dollars' worth of millinery and it would carry another five hundred on the price tag without a blush.

As to material and workmanship, big production demands the best of both. As to material, which is largely steel in one form or another, none but the very best for the purpose for which used can be tolerated.

One of the biggest problems today confronting motorists is finding parking space and getting their car in parallel with the curb after they have found it, and it is right here that a good many car owners sigh for a steam steering gear. With a Maxwell you don't feel as though you had done a day's work after squeezing into a tight hole. There are a lot of nice little things about this steering gear which are appreciated when the car ahead of you suddenly stops and you have to handle the wheel with your right hand while signalling with your left, or when after making a wide turn at speed the wheel comes automatically to the straightaway position.

Just a Few Words About the Exceptional Maxwell Truck

You can buy four Maxwell Trucks for the price of one reliable 5-ton truck, and the $5,000 5-ton truck isn't any better than a Maxwell. It's merely bigger. That's all.

And you can own four Maxwells for the price of one reliable 5-ton truck.

The four Maxwells will do more work, carry more goods, carry them faster, serve more uses at less cost.

How good these Maxwells are is shown by this great figure: 99.6% perfect—a verdict taken from service records covering 13,000 Maxwells now in use.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The Trustees and Endowment Campaign committee have decided to conduct the local campaign for subscriptions to the New Endowment Fund during the week of April 11 to 17. At a recent conference of the trustees and local members of the National Endowment committee various phases of the campaign in Morgan county were discussed. The president of the college was authorized, in co-operation with a committee of five to proceed with the general arrangements for the local campaign.

Mr. Thomas C. Blaisdell, Jr., representing the Student Volunteer Movement, visited Illinois college Wednesday and Thursday. He spoke at a meeting of the young women Wednesday evening and at Chapel Thursday morning. He also held a number of individual conferences.

A meeting of the officers of the local Alumni association was recently held in the office of State's Attorney Robinson to consider plans for the annual alumni banquet in Jacksonville. Announcement of these plans will probably be made soon. A. C. Rice, '74, is the president of the Jacksonville Alumni association.

The mail recently brought to the desk of President Rammelkamp two subscriptions to the Endowment Fund from far distant places. One was from China and the other from India. It is evident that interest in the Endowment Fund is spreading to all parts of the world, wherever friends of the college may be.

The Phi Alpha Literary society is proceeding with its plans for the celebration of its seventy-fifth anniversary. Ralph I. Dunlap, '03 is chairman of the committee.

The Girls' Glee club sang at the chapel exercises Tuesday morning. T. C. Antrobus led the devotional service and William A. Scott read "A Message to Garcia."

The Men's Glee club gave a concert at Waverly on Wednesday evening and another at Palmyra on Thursday evening.

President Rammelkamp will attend the meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools in Chicago at the end of the week. He is a member of the Commission on Higher Institutions of Learning and also of the nominating committee for the present year.

The Reverend Thomas W. Smith, '87, will preach at both services in the Presbyterian church at White Hall Sunday.

Professor George H. Scott attended the teachers' meeting of this district in Springfield Friday and Saturday.

Dean F. S. Hayden returned from Chicago Wednesday morning. He represented the college at the Inter-Church conference.

Professor George R. Poage went to Payson Thursday to act as a judge in a high school debate.

Elegance Within Reason

Moon Modern Motor cars are built with two types of chassis—the Six-48 and the Six-68—in touring cars, Roadsters, Sedans and Coupes. These cars are of notable general interest because their elegance of design, coach work, upholstery, and furnishings are obtainable at prices which are still well within the realm of reason.

Moon Cars are mechanically irreproachable. Light in weight and wear, with every part proved. Come let us give you a demonstration. The demand for Moon Modern Motor Cars far exceeds the production. Better put in your order now for one of these cars for spring delivery.

We have an up-to-date repair shop. Vulcanizing, Battery Work and general Repair Work. All work guaranteed. Prices satisfactory. Tires, Tubes, Batteries, Oil, Gasoline and other Accessories at reasonable prices.

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE

ILLINOIS

Water Filtration Plant and Appurtenances.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed Proposals, endorsed
"Proposals for Water Filtration Plant and Appurtenances" will be received by the Clerk of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois until 10 o'clock, A. M., on the 24th day of March, 1920, and will be publicly opened according to law.

The work for which proposals are invited includes the construction of a mechanical filtration plant of the gravity type with a rated capacity of about 1.5 million gallons per 24 hours, including an aerating basin, coagulating basin, filters, filtered water reservoirs, head house piping connections and all appurtenances in accordance with plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Clerk and at the offices of the Engineers, Pearce &
Greedy, 39 W. Adams Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Proposals are invited under the following divisions:—
Division A—Excavation, concrete work, reinforcing steel,
building construction, sewerage
and the like.

Division B—Filter equipment and appurtenances.
Proposals may be made on one division or on both divisions complete, but not on any part of any one division. A proposal may also be made on both divisions as an entirety. The City may accept the most favorable proposal for any one of the divisions except proposals on all divisions as an entirety.

The work is located in the City
of Jacksonville, Illinois.
Each proposal must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same
and must be accompanied by a certified check or a surety bond, acceptable to the Clerk of said City, is a guarantee that if the proposal is accepted a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured, in the following sums:—

Division A—Nine Hundred
dollars ($900.00).
Division B—Four Hundred
dollars ($400.00).
Division A & B, as an entirety
—Eleven Hundred Dollars
$1,100.00.

All proposals must be made upon blank forms furnished by the City of Jacksonville, and in accordance with the "Instructions for Bidding and Instructions to Bidders" attached there-
to.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids,
give any informality in the bids
received and to accept any bid
which it deems most favorable to the City of Jacksonville.

Specifications, forms of proposal and plans may be obtained
from the City of Jacksonville, in accordance with the "Instructions for Bidding and Instructions to Bidders" attached there-
to, at the office of the City Clerk,
at the office of the Engineers, Pearce
& Greedy, 39 W. Adams Street,
Chicago, Illinois, or at the office
of the City Clerk, at the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received by the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, until ten o'clock
A. M., Wednesday, March 24th, 1920, in the Council Room at the City Hall of said City, for the furnishing of all materials, tools, labor and equipment necessary in constructing a combined power plant and pumping station in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by the Caldwell Engineering Company.

The work on which bids will be received is divided into the following:

Division A—Shall consist of the following: Excavation, concrete foundations, suction well,

gether with its air and circulating
pumps.

Division E—Shall consist of the furnishing and erection of 2 300 Horse Power Horizontal water tube standard boilers, together with the steam header and pipe covering and breeching.

Proposals may be made on one division or on all divisions complete but not on any part of any one division. Proposals may be made on all divisions as an entirety. The City may accept the most favorable proposal for any one of the divisions except proposals on all divisions as an entirety.

The work is located in the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, adjacent to the C. & A. railroad and bidders must take cognizance of the fact that a spur track will be built from the C. & A. railroad to the side of the work.

Every proposal must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same
and must be accompanied by a certified check or a surety bond acceptable to the City Council as a surety that if the proposal is accepted a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the proposal.

All proposals must be made
upon blank forms furnished by
the City of Jacksonville and in accordance with the plans and specifications.

The City Council reserves the
right to reject any or all bids,
waive any informality in the bids
received and to accept any bid
which it deems most favorable to
the City of Jacksonville.

Specifications, forms of proposal and plans may be obtained
from the City of Jacksonville, in accordance with the "Instructions for Bidding and Instructions to Bidders" attached there-
to, at the office of the City Clerk,
at the office of the Engineers, Pearce
& Greedy, 39 W. Adams Street,
Chicago, Illinois, or at the office
of the City Clerk, at the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.

Leaders in Service to the Public

in the days of horse and carriage, we have bowed to the inevitable change of conditions, will dispose of our large livery stock Tuesday.

We have remodeled our commodious quarters into a thoroughly up-to-date automobile garage, keeping ever in thought that now, as in the past, the utmost service to the public is of first consideration.

The advent of the automobile has changed all previous conceptions of business and living.

Within a very short time the automobile has developed from a luxury to a real necessity.

In the early days of the automobile the man who owned a modest "horseless carriage," even if it didn't perform regularly, was thought to be far in advance of his time. Today the man who doesn't own an automobile is considered somewhat behind the times.

The rapidly increasing use of the automobile has necessitated service stations—stations where the city dweller or the visitor to the city can find safe storage and the supplies and assistance he may require.

Following the trend of the times we have altered our large two-story building accordingly.

Its location is admirable (but one block north of the square on N. Main street), has entrance from three streets (North Main, West North and North Sandy streets), and as has been arranged will afford about 50,000 feet of floor space.

We have provided a rest and wash room for ladies; business office; a large and light sales and display room for our tires, tubes, auto supplies and accessories; ample safe and dry car storage; a space for careful car washing; gas and air supply.

We shall maintain an up-to-date automobile funeral and ambulance service, retaining only sufficient of our horse equipment to work when it may be impossible or impractical to operate our auto service.

A Little Talk on Tires and Tubes

Are you buying the cheapest that you can find or are you buying the Tires and Tubes that will give you the most for your money?

We handle the Bergougnan and Lee Tires, and the Tiger, Lee and Goodrich Tubes.

We are able to protect your pocketbook and at the same time give you the better mileage service.

For example, on the Lee Puncture Proof we protect you to the extent of cash refund for any puncture during the life of the tire.

The Bergougnan Tires, while new in this territory, have been serving the people of this country and Europe for the past twenty years.

This tire not only is an artistic piece of work, but is a strong, sturdy, well made product, designed to meet the most severe road conditions.

The tubes that we carry are the extra heavy red rubber that we can well afford to stand back of, because long experience has shown they meet fully all claims made for them.
